2) Please bring up, with the form of warrant that is issued to the Supdt of the Jail when a Convicted man is sent there, as also with the rules regarding the procedure adopted when a prisoner is transferred from one Jail to another. The case is not so simple as this represents to be.

3) The prisoner was Convicted by the Railway Magistrate Ctm Station, and (by the tenor of the Supdt's letter) was sent to the Central Jail to undergo the sentence. Warrant to execute the sentence should, presumably have been addressed to the Supdt Central Jail Bangalore, as he has asked for the return of the prisoner to undergo the sentence. It does not appear to be competent on the part of the Govt of anyone to order that the sentence may be undergone in the Vizagapatam Jail. The District Magistrate of Ctm Station, should have the Resident, to arrange for the proposed transfer, as is the practice when other Indian prisoners are transferred to Vellore. The Supdt of Viz^g Jail may not exceed the ~~warrant~~ sentence, without a warrant addressed to him or without other proper authority, and the Supdt Central Jail Bangalore may not transfer his responsibility to another.

4) Under the circumstances, the course open appears to be to get the prisoner here to undergo the sentence (the cost of transit he is not our concern), or to intimate to the Govt of Orissa there, to move the Govt the Resident to take necessary steps in the matter. Supdt may perhaps be informed accordingly.

Sir,

In submitting herewith copy of letter No. 2539/F. 5 dated 24th November, with a copy of its enclosure, received from the Superintendent, Bangalore Central Jail, I have the honour to state that Convict No. 6070 Gopal Nair referred to in the enclosed Nominal Roll, was originally undergoing a term of imprisonment in the Vellore Central Jail, and was subsequently sentenced to six months rigorous imprisonment by the Railway Magistrate, Civil and Military Station, Bangalore, on 19-4-20, and was sent back to Vellore on 27-4-20. It is reported that the prisoner in question has been sentenced to a further term of 10 years' imprisonment, and that he is now undergoing the same in the Vizagapatam Jail and the Inspector-General of Prisons, Madras, wants to know whether the said convit could be kept in Vizagapatam Jail, to undergo the 6 months' rigorous imprisonment passed on the prisoner by the Railway Magistrate, Civil and Military Station, Bangalore.

In this connection I invite your kind reference to note No. 1. under Rule 2 of the Mysore Jail Manual, by which, prisoners sentenced to less than one year by the Magistrates of the Civil and Military Station, Bangalore, are confined in the Bangalore Central Jail, in order to avoid transfer charges and other expenses and unnecessary

But as the prisoner under reference, is already undergoing the imprisonment in the Jails of the Madras Presidency, he may be conveniently allowed to undergo the 6 months' rigorous imprisonment passed on him by the Railway Magistrate Civil and Military Stattion, Bangalore.

I request, therefore, that sanction of Government may kindl be obtained in the matter and communicated to me at an early da Letter No. 2539/F. 5 dated 24th November 1923 from the Superintendent, Central Jail, Bangalore, to the Inspector-General of Prisons in Mysore, Bangalore.

I have the honour to report that the 1st Class Railway Magistrate, Civil and Military Station Bangalore, secured the presence of one A Gopala Nair, who was undergoing a certaim term of imprisonment in the Central Jail at Vellore, and he tried and sentenced him on 19-4-1920, to suffer 6 months rigorous imprisonment. The convict was received here pending his removal back to the Vellore Central Jail, whcih was effected on 27-4-1920 and the superintendent of that Jail was simultaneously written to, to send the convict back to this Jail, to undergo the Railway Magistrate's sentence after he finished his term at Vellore.

2. Thereupon, in answer to letter No.1240, dated the 5th Oct.23, from the Superintendent of the Central Jail at Vizagapatam, intimating that the convict's sentence had been enhanced by 10 years and enquiring if the convict had to be sent to Bangalore Central Jail at once after the 10 years' sentence, it was stated, that if the 10 years' sentence was a continuation of the sentence he was undergoing at Vellore before he was handed over to the Railway Magistrate, the convict need not be sent back at present, but if it was altogether a new sentence priority of execution should be given to the Railway Magistrate's sentence.

3. Meantime the Inspector-General of prisons in Madras, in his letter No. 11264, dated ootacamund 10th November 1923, intimated that the 10 years sentence had been passed in a new case and the convict being a habitual was at present confined in the Vizagapatam Jail a[illegible]ed to know if it was necessary to send back the convict or c[illegible] be detained in Vizagapatam to undergo 6 months rigorous i[illegible]ment awarded by the Railway Magistrate.

4. According to Note 1 Rule 2 of the Mysore Jail Manual it is by special arrangement that prisoners (sentenced, Civil & undertrial) of the court of the C.& M. Station are confined in the in the Central Jail at Bangalore. It is thus likely that prisoners sentenced to less than one year are detained in Bangalore Central Jail to save labour and expense. If this is granted no objection can be taken to the said prisoner undergoing his 6 months' rigorous imprisonment awarded to him by the C.& M. Station Railway Magistrate at Vizagapatam. Orders may kindly be passed early as so as to enable m to send an answer to the Inspector-General of Prisons of Madras.

I forward herewith the necessary nominal roll of the convict together with a copy of the I.G. of Prisons letter referred to in para in 3 above.

Imprisonment of convict Gopal Nair.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No.11164, dated the 15th November 1923, addressed to the Superintendent, Central Jail, Bangalore, I am directed to state that the prisoner in question may, after the expiry of the sentence passed by the Sessions Judge, Coimbatore, be sent to the Central Jail, Vellore, for undergoing the sentence passed by the Railway Magistrate, Bangalore. Under the notification of the Government of India in the Foreign and Political Department, No.841.I-B, dated the 21st March 1918 (copy enclosed) a prisoner sentenced to imprisonment for a term of one year or under by a Court in the Civil and Military Station, Bangalore, may be moved by order of the Resident, only to the Central Jail at Vellore. But this does not of course affect any power you may have for transferring convicts in the Madras Presidency from one
